'MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM'
SCHEDULED FOR PRODUCTION IN CREATIVE ARTS THEATRE

Eleven years and 42 productions after the first play was presented in the temporary Little Theatre (March, 1966), the Drama Department is scheduling the unofficial opening of THE THEATRE in the new Creative Arts Building, with a production of 'Midsummer Night's Dream.'

The Theatre will open officially with a special offering next Fall.

Ronald Barnes, play director and Chairman of the Drama Department, states that in choosing the Shakespeare comedy for the "shakedown" premier presentation in The Theatre, he had in mind that it is the Spring Quarter offering and "what could be more suited to Spring?"

He adds that since it is also the first play in the new building many students would want to participate for that reason and the vehicle provides many good roles for student actors. The play is considered one of Shakespeare's happiest comedies, mixing the world of the king, of young lovers, of fairies and of tradesmen. It was for this play that the bard penned the famous words "The course of true love never did run smooth."

To place the spotlight on the new stage facility itself, Dr. Barnes says "We have designed a simple set. Costuming will be the primary mode of set decoration."

Twenty-two cast members began rehearsal last Wednesday for mid-May performances: John Betcher, Danny Bilson, Ann Boden, Lucy Chaille, Paul Demeo, Tina Ellis, Allen Evenson, Ivan Glasco, Keri Grunest, Cynthia Harper, Chris Hewitt, Debbie Katz, Kurt Nelson, Keith O'Camb, Mike Padilla, Dawn Peacock, Syndi Prater, Morris Ridgeway, Corrine Soto, Dona Southworth, Karen Yarling and Cookie Pollard.

THE WORLD OF ART

CSCSB AT THE COUNTY MUSEUM - Art pieces representing work by CSCSB art faculty will be on exhibit April 4 through 29 in the main gallery of the San Bernardino County Museum.

Eight members of the Art Department are exhibiting upon invitation of the Redlands-located museum gallery, including Lori Delarosa, Leo Doyle, Roger Lintault, Joe Moran, Jan Mrozinski, George Rodetis, Bill Warehall and Don Woodford. Art forms range from painting, sculpture, ceramics, prints, drawings, to weaving and woodworking.

Joe Moran, Assistant Professor, and Jan Mrozinski, Lecturer, coordinated the show. A reception for the artists will be held April 8 at 8 p.m.

INDIAN ART AT GALLERY - Rare examples of American Indian art selected from many local private collections have been assembled into an exhibit to be on display in the Art Gallery, April 11 through May 6.

Included will be some pieces of prehistoric pottery, some 19th and 20th century pieces and pots made by Maria, world renowned Indian potter from New Mexico.

The rugs were made by the Navajo Indians from the Two Gray Hills area and the baskets are primarily from the 19th century Papago and Apache Indians.

The exhibit will open with a reception at 8 p.m., April 11.

STUDENT SOUTH INDIAN SINGING GROUP PERFORMS A spin-off from a class, "Music of Other Cultures," a South Indian singing group was formed by five music students. Just returning from a performance in Salt Lake City where they sang for the western division meeting of the Music Educators National Conference, the group will present a program of South Indian singing, Sunday evening, April 3, in a lecture-recital.

Richard Saylor, director, and Professor of Music, will explain the aspects of the music during the program, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in PS-10. Students performing are Mark Fife, Vicki Johnson, Candice Mitchell, James Teel and Sarah Nesbit.

The public and College are invited. There is no admission charge.

JAMES PIERSON RECEIVES HUMANITIES FELLOWSHIP.

James Pierson, Associate Professor of Anthropology, will spend the entire 1977-78 academic year at the Department of Anthropology of the University of Florida as the result of his being selected to receive a National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship in Residence for College Teachers. While at the University of Florida he will participate in a seminar titled "The Transformation of American Culture" and conduct a personal research project on Urbanization in the South.

The Humanities fellowships were offered to only one out of every five applicants this year. This makes the second National Endowment for the Humanities awarded to Dr. Pierson. He was chosen in 1975 to attend a summer seminar sponsored by the NEH at the U of Florida.

Dr. Pierson joined the CSCSB faculty in 1971 and served as Chairman of the Anthropology Department from 1972-74.
